Dear Henri:

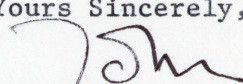

On the occasion of your last concert of the 1984-85 season, I want to tell you how pleased I am that your subscribers have again had the chance to enjoy your delightful music in the congenial setting of the Getty Museum.

As you know, Bret Waller, the former Director of the Memorial Art Gallery of the University of Rochester, joins us next month as our first Associate Director for Education and Public Affairs. An important part of his responsibility will be to help shape public programs in the future. Mr. Waller has received public recognition for directing programs that gained an international reputation for excellence. He will be a valuable addition to our staff.

I know Bret is looking forward to meeting with you immediately after his arrival to hear your future plans for the California Chamber Symphony.

I certainly hope this season has been your most successful yet, and I take pride in having collaborated with you in sponsoring this series at the Getty. I wish I could be with you on Sunday, May 19 concert, but since I cannot I have asked Jean Keefe, Director of Public Information, to read this letter to the audience and to congratulate you for another remarkable contribution to the musical life of our community.

Yours Sincerely,

John Walsh
Director
