Dear Mr Temianka,

Thank you so very much for your letter.

It gives me great pleasure to know that my Symphony made such an impression on you and your colleagues, & I wish that I could have been present at the performance. I had every intention of attending it, but unfortunately I was recuperating from an operation, so I couldn't possibly come.

Perhaps you will be so kind as to convey to all concerned my gratitude for all the trouble & care that was taken over the performance.

Yours sincerely

William Walton.
