Dear Mr. Temianka:

Your letter of March 29, with the enclosure of the information about your programs plus the copies of your correspondence with Darius Milhaud have arrived safely. We are both touched and grateful to have this wonderful addition to the Darius Milhaud Society archives, and I am fascinated to be able to have a glimpse of those stimulating times when you and he were able to collaborate in performances. It is valuable resource material, and we thank you very much.

I'm delighted to know that you will feature a Milhaud chamber work on a concert next season. We'll look forward to learning the information about the work, date of performance, location, etc. for inclusion in the Darius Milhaud Society Newsletter and the Milhaud Performance Calendar.

Did I mention previously that a Darius Milhaud Centennial Celebration logo and letterhead are being designed to be available for use by organizations who wish to share it, as they give prominence to Milhaud's music in recognition of his centenary birth anniversary? If you have any interest in sharing our design for your own use, please let me know.

Please accept my warmest thanks for your thoughtfulness and caring to take the time and trouble to prepare and send us the Milhaud memorabilia. I'll look forward to hearing from you again.

Sincerely,

Katharine M. Warne
