Dear Mr. Temianka:

It was a great pleasure to find your kind note with the xerox copies of Darius Milhaud's letter, the programs and the octet review, when we returned from our out of town journey. It is delightful to discover how active you have been in performing Milhaud's music, and we are grateful to have for the Milhaud Society archives any and all information you care to send. The Spring/Summer newsletter (momentarily due from the printer) shows the article based on the material sent by Frances Bedford about Milhaud performances in New York. For the Fall newsletter issue, I would welcome the opportunity to include information about many of your performances, if you wish to send me the material.

I hope very much that your California Chamber Symphony will be able to perform a Milhaud work to help celebrate the Milhaud centennial. We'll be pleased to share information with newsletter readers and in the calendar that goes to music departments and schools throughout the U. S. and Canada.

I'll look forward to hearing from you at your convenience. Enclosed is a list of Milhaud's chamber orchestra works, which is no doubt a redundancy, since I am sure you are aware of his output in that area.

Sincerely,

Katharine M. Warne
