Dear Henry:

It was a wonderful evening, especially for me and my family. The music was scintillating, the food excellent and the general ambience just right for a birthday celebration for me. So you did it again for the Waynes! For Kya in Hong Kong and for me in L.A. I did not expect my 73rd to be celebrated, but it felt real good - the way you did it, and it was a genuine surprise. I thank you from the bottom of my repaired heart. It's just such expressions of friendship that keep my tired old heart going. I'd be honored if you promise to celebrate my 80th - in just the same way.

Thank you - so much for your music & your friendship - Sincerely, George
