Dear Mr. Wen:

Enclosed is the promised personal reminiscence on Henryk Szeryng, along with a photograph of Los Angeles Mayor Bradley presenting the Proclamation to Szeryng at his Golden Jubilee Concert in Los Angeles under my direction, on December 1, 1983. The event is described in my article.

Let me take this opportunity to thank you for your gracious letter of April 20. Instead of the private Jubilee record collection, allow me to send you, under separate cover, and with my compliments, the just-issued compact discs of the 15 Handel Sonatas on the Pantheon label, (previously on stereo LP Everest), and a cassette of "Vintage Temianka," remastered by EMI and produced by Musical Heritage. I hope you can review these in The Strad.

With kind regards,

Yours cordially,

Henri Temianka

HT/ap

P.S. I would appreciate your returning the photograph to me after use.
