Dear Mr. Wen:

Thank you for your letter of October 27. I would acknowledge it to the person who signed the letter, except that I am unable to decipher the signature. Certainly the topic outlined by you is suitable and I will be glad to work on it. I would, in the big picture, like to be able to write in much greater depth about the lives, careers and musical and technical philosophies of the artists I listed in my previous letter. In the meantime, I shall proceed in accordance with your suggestion.

Yours sincerely,

Henri Temianka
