Dear Mr Zimbalist

Thank you for your letter informing me of the special set of recordings entitled "The Art of Henri Temianka".

Although THE STRAD would usually review an item of this sort, I am afraid that our limited budget would not enable us to purchase the set at full price. As the item is, in fact, intended for charity purposes and produced as a limited edition it may perhaps already be sold out by the time a review would appear in print.

On another matter, THE STRAD is most interested in honouring your father, the violinist Efrem Zimbalist, on the occasion of his centenary next year. If you would care to help us in this we would, of course, be most grateful.

Yours sincerely

Eric Wen
