THE STRAD

Dear Mr. Temianka,

Thank you for your letter of 19 December and the article entitled "The Demise of the Violinist-composer". Due to our change of address, however, we only received these items last week, hence the late reply and acknowledgement.

The projected publication date for your article will be either March or April, and the standard fee for articles published in The Strad is £50 per 1000 words. In any case you will be receiving galleys of the article in order to make corrections and/or last-minute changes.

Although The Strad does not usually pay contributors for personal tributes or 'Notes and News' items, I have asked that you be paid £50 for the Szeryng remembrance (this will most likely be added on to your fee for the article).

The reviews of your recordings will, incidentally, appear in the same issue as your article.

Yours sincerely,

Eric Wen
Editor
