December 16, 1940

Dear Henry:

I have the date of your concert on my desk pad. Unfortunately, the last one I was out of town and the one on December 18th will find me off base also.

But I am going to make a desperate effort to get in on the next one, because I am very eager, not only to hear them - but to see you again.

Thanks a lot for sending me the pass. I assure you I appreciate the compliment, though it was not at all necessary as I had my money in my hand when I thought I could go. I am sorry to be away just at this time, but you know how it is.

Best of luck to you! I hear wonderful things of the first concert.

As ever yours,

Stewart
