Dear Henri,

This letter is a year late. I heard that you were thinking of a concert for me at Long Beach through the mains, and also I guess the mains passed on the information about my conflicting tour plans to Scandinavia. All this was during rush, rush times, so I just filed this very lovely thought about you, and told myself I'd write and tell you how much I appreciate your thoughtfulness. Now all the self-bickering I do on my backside won't help my tardiness, so this letter must try to express both my gratitude, and my apologies.

I bought your Handel album and am enjoying the Sonatas so very much. Really beautiful.
And although I'm really a hermit, playing like
the old woman who lived in a shoe, I do hope

Some day soon to be in the audience for your Chamber orchestra
Concerts.

In the meantime,
my very best to
you in every way.
And thank you again.

Fondly,

Camilla
