Dear Henri -

Thank you for your letter to me upon your departure from Norway. I was delighted that all turned out so well, that you enjoyed your stay, and that reports from Norway have been so appreciative of your great talents.

I am also writing about the brochure that carries a biography solely lacking in information and rather embarrassing in its other statements. Due to not expecting to use it — having decided to retire from concerts about seven years ago, I've never seriously thought of writing a new one. Also I've been especially busy with family matters (illness, aged, moving, etc)

X old one written by my former husband.

and when I was asked for information for Hidden Valley Music Seminars, I dug up whatever I had - sending it on to Mr. Meckel. You see, I don't intend to have a concert career, and what playing I'm doing (18 concerts in Sept. in Norway!)
is sort of to satisfy commitments.
Strange life. (and I guess I'm a strange sort of fish)

Well, this is why the biography is not complete.
I should have written a new one, also listing Carlton Wood, who helped me for some years during my childhood. I will try to do this soon.

I was also happy to have the xerox copies of my letters to you. They are interesting to me and bring back some great memories. But I hope you will keep them as only a communication to you - privately.

My best to Emy -
Yours.

Amelia
