CALIFORNIA

October 14, 1986

Mr. Henri Temianka
Los Angeles, California

Dear Mr. Temianka:

The measure of Southern California's love and admiration for you is contained within this room tonight as you are surrounded by the scores of friends and admirers who have come to honor you on the occasion of your birthday. It is my pleasure to add my warmest congratulations to the many you have already received.

It is the rare individual who can inspire such an outpouring of affection. Your life has been a rich meld of experiences, many of which you have freely shared with audiences around the world. Not only are your creativity, vitality and wit well known and well loved, but you have inspired us with your musical genius and enormous talent. Your contribution to the world has not only influenced Twentieth Century life, but exists for all future generations.

As you celebrate your 80th birthday, you do so with the combined good wishes of all of us who admire and respect you and your life's work. I salute your commitment to spreading good will through your beautiful music.

May the years ahead bring you the rewards of good health, happiness and the satisfaction of a rich and full life.

Sincerely,

PETE WILSON
