Dear Editor,

American's freedom of the press, of which we are so proud, was amply demonstrated in the August 14th Times. President Reagan's frivolous announcement on the imminent bombing of Russia, front page news in Europe, was relegated to an obscure corner of page 11 by the Times. By contrast, the installation of a rowdy new member in the Israeli Knesset was selected as the Times' cover story, reinforced with a huge photograph on the next page.

Yes, we have a free press indeed. Lamentably, it often uses this freedom to suppress, distort, manipulate, and malign. The American public is entitled to resent this insult to its intelligence.

Yours very truly,

Henri Temianka
