Dear Sir:

Today's Times displays the front page caption: "U.S. Warns Israel to Allow PLO to Leave Unhampered". This is the same PLO that officially boasts of having blown up a bus with children in Jerusalem last week. Since Israel and the United States are both sovereign, democratic countries, I can visualize tomorrow's headline: "Israel Warns U.S. not to Hamper Terrorists Responsible for Massacre of Marines at Beirut". What's the difference?

The next logical step would be to invite all the terrorists for a reception on the White House lawn, with U.N. flags fluttering in the breeze. And how about a special Olympics category for bomb throwers and kamikaze truck drivers? 1984 - the timing is perfect!

Yours sincerely,

Henri Temianka
