What a man you are,
Henri! And how magnificently you make a point!!

I sit around thinking
your thoughts -- you
stand up and shout
them.

Bravo!

U.N. Resolution Condemning Israel

The so-called United Nations Security Council—long discredited for its cynical, corrupt actions—has reached a new low in condemning Israel for blowing up some houses in Lebanon suspected of harboring terrorists. By chilling contrast, the preceding massacre by Arab barbarians operating from Lebanese sanctuaries, in which innocent children were gunned down and thrown out of upper story windows, evoked stormy applause from the whole Arab world and stony silence and indifference from the rest of our admirable 20th century civilization. After all, these were only Jewish children!

One only has to observe events in Soviet Russia, listen to Daniel Berrigan, and read the leprous poetry of Allen Ginsburg so prominently featured in the respectable Los Angeles Times, to realize that the stench of anti-Semitism is all around us. Adolf Hitler, your spirit is alive and well.
