Dear Mr. Temianka:

Thank you for your recent letter, and for pointing out an error in the March 12 Special Section on the Soviet Union. As you say, Count Leo Tolstoy was born in 1828, sixteen years after the Battle of Borodino, so it would have been very difficult indeed for him to have been one of the participants. We were a little too heady with enthusiasm for War and Peace, and for the verisimilitude of Tolstoy's account of the battle; we appreciate your bringing this mistake to our attention.

Best wishes from the editors.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Danziger
