Dear Sir:

City Councilman Zev Yaroslavsky is barking up the wrong tree in trying to stop the sale of anti-semitic books at city sponsored events. As our cities cultural affairs general manager correctly points out, our prized First Amendment guarantees everyone's right to incite violence, prejudice, discrimination, bigotry and hatred. All I expect is that, in the name of that same First Amendment, in future, alongside the anti-semitic filth, equal space and prominence be given to anti-Black, anti-Hispanic, anti-Catholic, anti-religious, anti-militaristic and anti-government displays. Hatred, bigotry, racial discrimination, incitement to violence - is that what the First Amendment is all about? God help us!

Sincerely,

Henri Temianka
