The Karlin Debate

I am generally an admirer of Marlene Adler Marks, but in the case of Judge Karlin she is way off her Marks. The issue has nothing to do with being Jewish; it has everything to do with justice. To accuse the Jewish community of being "loath to stick its neck out" is unfair and denigrating. No matter how mitigating the circumstances surrounding the killing may have been, a life has been taken, the life of a minor. It is not enough for Marks to concede that Judge Karlin's sentence of Soon Ja Du was "too lenient." I am deeply disturbed by Karlin's serious lack of judgment, and lack of compassion for the bereaved family.

Marlene Adler Marks: Don't brand those of us who disagree with you as cowards. I am accustomed to higher standards from you.
