Dear Sir or Madam:

Please allow me to pay a personal tribute to the memory of one of the most beloved and distinguished members of the Los Angeles community, Dr. Marcus Rabwin. I feel sure that I am speaking for the innumerable fellow human beings whose lives he touched, in expressing our deeply felt sorrow at his death. In the Prayer of Maimonides, the great 12th century sage and physician said, "May I never see in the patient anything else but a fellow creature in pain." The life of Marcus Rabwin was a shining example of that faith.

Yours sincerely,

Henri Temianka
