Dear Mr. Temianka:

On behalf of the leadership of the American Zionist Federation and all who attended the marvelous concert, we would like to express our deep appreciation and gratitude for your great artistry in conducting the Doctors' Symphony Orchestra at the occasion of our celebration of Israel's 24th Anniversary.

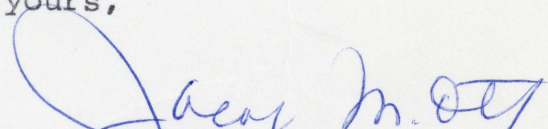

Your leadership of the orchestra was brilliant and your introductory comments to the music were very interesting and deepened the appreciation of the audience.

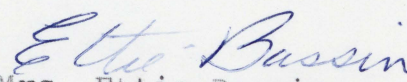

We were deeply impressed with the behavior of our audience and the orchestra during the bomb threat. This experience created a special bond between you, the musicians and the audience. We are sure that you must have felt this as we did.

Again our grateful thanks to you for adding so greatly to Israel's 24th Anniversary Celebration.

Cordially yours,

Mr. Victor Carter
