RE: Arts and Science Development Service
DATE: Feb. 4, 1982

I have spoken with you at some length regarding this service, which provides mailing lists for arts and science organizations, and which has a monthly newsletter giving data on successful lists, etc. Membership in the service to Chamber Music America members is only $20, compared to non CMA members of $100.

I attach Steve Belth's last letter to me on his service.

We shall definitely want to invest in some of the lists for our series mailings this summer or late spring (whenever we are ready to do this) and I would like to start getting feedback on which lists he has and which are likely to be best bets for us. This we would get with membership.
