Dear Henni,
Firstly, many thanks for the brochure. A lovely souvenir, I will cherish.

Sorry I've been such an age writing to you. Thanks to our meeting I was able to contact and see Rae. You may know by now that she and Hanni came to London last September. We had the most wonderful reunion, but had to see dear

Rosi's condition! how well she handles her condition. We had so much catching up to do, I went to Holland for a week 2 weeks after she left.

Meeting Max was an experience in itself! His house, nay "Palazzo" looks like the annex to the Ryksmuseum, albeit unfinished. Miché is something else! a most attractive, talented woman, and as with Max, great sense of humour. I had a wonderful week Rosi had stacks of photos of the family! now know how your sister Rose looks, also the portrait of our grandfather.

 Saw lots of past brochures of yours, and heard almost, I think, all the family history. Rose has the the most wonderful memory for the smallest things past.

Unfortunately, after I left.
 Rose had to go into the clinic for an emergency operation again; Hanni went to stay with her and wrote and told how serious it was. I've Spoken to her recently and apparently all is T.G. well now.

My family have just gone back to France after spending a week with me. I don't see them often enough so it was a lovely week.
I'm still feeling the effects of the due to this great English climate. Miss the sun so much. Really miss the Maltese weather.

Hope you can decipher my ghastly writing wish all Happy 1987 and hope to see you all one day Fondlest Love Muriel
