Dear Henri

Once more let me tell you what a pleasure it was to be with you on the cruise and to make music with you. It was a marvelous experience. Upon arriving home I immediately read your book and found it to be like your conversation - fascinating, witty and informative. I plan to make it recommended reading for all my students.

You may hear from me by phone before you receive this, because I plan to call you
over the weekend.

I hope your New York
business was concluded successfully and that your homecoming found Emmy feeling better than before. I hope she decides against surgery.

Sylvia had the time of her life and sends thanks as I do for making it possible for her to come along

With warmest greetings

Bill
