1. Radetzky March by Johann Strauss
2. Cello Concerto, 1st movement by Saint Saens performed by Bill de Rosa, Soloist 13 years 3. Scott Joplin piece 4. Polovetzian Dances by Borodin & Flight of the Bumble Bee; performed by Eddie Manson, harmonic soloist
5. Hoedown, by Aaron Copland

I will start off by saying that I have never before liked orchestra music. When I went into the auditorium I expected the concert to be a bore. I was surprised to find myself enjoying the music. All of the instruments seemed to syncinize and form a good tune. I appreciated the orchest coming here to perform for us and hope that in the future others of such talent come to entertain us
