Dear

Bill I thought that you were fantastic
I would like to meet you some time I no you have spent a long time working and working on playing that instrument.

Bill I no now dont want to talk about my problems because they are very Bad I am hoping that I will pull thru I will probably be out in 4 months - or be a free man which I hope.

Bill I want now to get this letter because if you write back I will feel very good.

I was the one who shook your hand when we were walking out I caught such a good feeling that I felt like a free man already I guess that is because you are a very good and considerate person.

And I would like to say one more thing Brother I love you and the things you do are lovely.
Take it easy Brother

Your true friend Steve
