My dearest Sewri

I wanted to wait until all the concerts were in before I could say in all honesty and sincerity what I instinctively felt would be true - yours was the greatest.

Your music and technique and warmth was lyrical, singing, and communicating. You reached across and involved us all and there was such an atmosphere of love and joy in music. Dancing back and forth that every one floated out in an aura of joy.

Since you did not persuade me on deck in the moonlight
at midnight as promised,
I am asking for a refund.

With love
Jauer
