July 30-1929.

My dear Mrs Semianka: -

I wanted to write to you at once and thank you and your husband and family for your delightful hospitality, but I waited until we reached Frankfurt hoping that I might hear from you here as to whether or not you found the glasses at the hotel. Since I did not hear I imagine you could not find them. I shall write to the hotel today. Would you please drop me a line to Vienna, to the American Express Co. and let me know whether or not you ever heard anything about them. They are my reading glasses, and I miss them sorely. I am half hoping that you did get them and that Henry will bring them to Paris.

Our visit with you in Antwerp was a most delightful one; meeting you and your family will remain one of the outstanding pleasures of our trip.

I hope you are having a pleasant summer.
Tell Henry we look forward to meeting him in Paris.

We have had a lovely stay here, meeting some of my relatives of whom I have heard for years but had never seen before.

We leave Friday for Munich. We will be in Vienna about Tuesday and stay 3 or 4 days. Then on to Italy.

My husband and my sister join me in thanking you for your kindness to us, and sending regards to you, your dear husband and all the family -
Most Sincerely
Mae & Luteship
