Dear Emmy and Henri -

The dreadful delay in thanking you is due to the re-print situation. I thought you should have some mementoes also.

You have provided me with such a magnificent highlight in my life that I should never give another party. Total luxurious elegance. I can never thank you both for everything you did to make a dream come true - from when I was very young.

Love and thanks, Margaret
You notice on the front I have enlarged the orchestra for another year.
