Dear Jimmy,

We are so delighted to hear the good news of the arrival of your little son. I wish you could have heard your mother's happy voice on the telephone when she called me yesterday to tell me of her little grand son's safe arrival & what a lovely big strong boy he was & how well you were doing.

I am afraid you will have a very emotional meeting with Jimmy when he arrives tomorrow so be sure & take a quiet day's rest now with no excitement except that of holding & looking at your baby. I talked with

Agnes after we had both heard the good news. Mr. Robin has had rather a miserable week with inflammation in the gall bladder, & I have been very worried.
Today, thank heavens, he is better & almost free from pain. He sends you his best wishes & we both hope that another future violin genius has appeared in the world. Your affectionate friend Odile Robin

Today.
