Dear Henri -
I've been in New York and busier than is good since my return.

I was puzzled by the telegram sent out by Mr. Davis -

The Chamber Symphony - I've thought - was solvent in the years of its past life. I've wondered what has happened to change its status.

My books tell me that I gave $2000. to the Chamber Symphony during this year. You know that I have many commitments, all worthy! So unless this need is unusual, that is, that our pleasure in the music is great enough so that we as a group are glad to keep it alive, — I'm reluctant to give more than that in any one year.

My affection to you and Emmy and my wishes for your well-being, — and the "Symphony" too.

Sincerely,
Anna (Bing Arnold)
