THE Spalding

DULUTH'S POPULAR HOTEL
DULUTH 2, MINN.

April 17, 1958

Dear Timi,

Many thanks for your letter. I think Roberto, upon receipt, will be irresistably moved to give us a multi-thousand dollar contract, but we change our mind and, God forbid, decide against going to South America. The power of a well-written letter is amazing indeed.

Ever since we left you I meant to write to say how much we loved the evening we spent to-gether (and I don't mean the two hours which it took us to play our program, though even that was not too bad). With you, I hope it won't be too long before we join forces again, and, maybe, next time in Santa Fe.

With all best to your family and yourself, in which Vito joins me,
As ever,
Yours Vito

P.S. Freddie has written to South America. I will keep you informed — SEE AMERICA FIRST — than: South America, but above all don't miss Duluth.
