Dear Henri,

Having just read your piece in the Philharmonic Hall program I am impelled to tell you how truly touching Beverly and I found it. It was particularly refreshing to read something so simply human and sincere after the stereotyped nonsense published in the press. (I am sending along a couple of programs just in case you could use more copies.)

Let me also tell you - belatedly but no less sincerely - that we were most impressed by your poignant letter to the Times regarding the "manifesto" of prominent Soviet Jews. All power to you.

Beverly joins me in wishing you and Emmy and your family a healthy, happy and peaceful new year.

Cordially
David
