My Dear Temi,

The events of the last two weeks have been too shattering for me to attend to anything properly --. Indeed I felt too paralysed to write letters - but you have been so much in my thoughts -- Knowing what an agony of mind you were suffering I longed to be nearer so that we could at least talk together -- Where are your parents? I pray that they are safely somewhere - I hope in England? Did your sister arrive safely? I hope you have not lost faith yet?

White me soon -
 I leave here June 14 -
