Dear Renee,

In 30 minutes
I leave for San Francisco.
I spent your delightful
"Lunches at the Music Center" briefly while making pitche and you.
How I'd love to have heard your concert.
But my eldest had an operation and is just barely on her

put - she went into the hospital the day after the play closed.

Unhappily - I come back from up north - and must purry home to collect my youngest from boarding school -
so it goes: But thank you Henri
for seeing me out

in the air - three projects are pending - one in N.Y., one in the South and one in Russia.
I would go a long,
long way to see you and the marvelous

was 11!).

Well keep the
pics of music burning even against odds -
but I will plan to give as generously as I can when I get home to Connecticut and tackle my neglected desk. CCSS is of deep concern - Much love,

Bob
