Dear Mr. Jemianka,

I want to let you know that I miss you! Even though I haven't spent any time with you in a while, you still serve as my greatest inspiration. I had a rehearsal with Jay yesterday on Mozart's 3rd Concerto, and when it came to the second movement, I could swear you had taken my violin and played it. I've learned so much from you - I've stored everything you've given me somewhere within, and when it's needed it surfaces. So you are constantly with me, although we haven't actually seen each other... I look forward to spending a lot of time with you once my life calms down a bit.

I just wanted to tell you how much I love you and think about you - (even though there is another man now!!)
