Nina,

How long should neurotic behavior be condoned? And at what point should one be held responsible for one's acts?

More than four years ago you cancelled your concert commitments on a moment's notice, dumping a horrendous problem on me. That was the last I ever heard from you. You even ignored my big 80th birthday celebration.

You have demonstrated your contempt for the treasure, autographed Jacques Thibaud portrait I gave you. And now I see that, in contrast to your fellow artists, your biography in Yukiko's recent festival program omits all mention of your teachers — you did it all by yourself, without any help.

Enclosed is one of many old letters from you that tell a different story. You should be ashamed of yourself!
