dearest Mr. Temianka,

I'm referring to your performance of the Mozart 9 minor yesterday - it was so incredibly moving, I'm still depressed! Being a true Russian, this is my favorite state of mind...

Seriously though, there is no violinist that I've heard that has ever spoken to me the way you do - I'm so happy that you continue to play and share your rare gift with the world (and me).
So often I listen to an artist and think "if only he would have held that note a bit larger" etc... ~ but with you one can sit back and be completely swept away by your perfect music-making ~

I don't know when I've enjoyed anything more!

Since I've been so overwhelmed by your divine Mozart, I've been unable to produce a single note that I find acceptable ~ I'm sure you'll shed some light on this problem if we can arrange a lesson for next week.

All my love & → admiration

xx Nena
