Dear Mrs. Temiczka-

I want to thank you again for everything—Hong Kong, your brilliant solution to my financial chaos, mostly your advice, support, and love... as a child, I always felt deprived of a father and I never dreamed that my prayers could be answered—I hope you don't mind my thinking of you in this way, but you represent everything I always believed the ideal parent to be—wise, loving and most important, a constant inspiration—My love and gratitude grow every day—Thank you!
