Dear Mr. Temianka

I was struck by my usual shyness yesterday - I was unable to express my feelings to you... you played so beautifully, as you always do - but last night was even more wonderful than ever before... I had waited so long to hear you, play with you again - it was so moving for me, not only to sit next to you once again, but your performance... you gave everything, you make every note come alive, every phrase... I can't even say what I mean on paper... this is unusual!!... I feel truly blessed by your presence in my life - it may sound melodramatic, but it is so true... so forgive my blundering, know that the emotions you inspire are so overwhelming that I often have trouble expressing them -

I love you

xx Nina
