Dear Mr. and Mrs. Jemiarka,

I imagine you're celebrating the new year in high style after what I'm sure was a very successful series of concerts. I wish I were with you in Hong Kong toasting 1983 and our seventh anniversary...! My thoughts and love are with you, although I'm not.

I didn't mean to offend anyone by not sending a thank you note for our wedding present. Please accept my apologies for my lack of etiquette - I truly thought that our verbal acknowledgement was sufficient - may I repeat that yours was our most original gift - and we use it daily. We absolutely love it. Thanks again.

Hong Kong, I'm sure, will be sorry to see you go - and then there are some of us who can't wait to see you home again...

Welcome home & Happy New Year!

All my love,
Kina
