VICTOR BORGE

June 15/88

Dear Henri -

On June 25, at noon, I arrive in L.A. for an evening performance arranged by the Shriners (I think). First I do have a meeting with Al Sundry (Johnny Green recommended him you may remember) and after that I'll phone you in the hope of dragging you and Emmie (?) out for dinner or something? →

Enclosed is the promised Copy of my schedule so far.

Sometime, then, it should be possible to get together again, and often! You were wonderfully inspirational after the L.A. symphony splash.

Thanks.... and a lot!!

← from home to home:

yours,
~~John~~
