Dear Mr. Tennisha,

I am very sorry that we were not able to meet and try my Suite this week before you left. I phoned yesterday morning, but you were already out. I had imagined that you were here all this week.

The printed copy of the work should be ready at the end of next week.

I hear that you will call on Sunday at Haide Vale. Perhaps you will leave an address where I could send it on to you, as I certainly want you to have a copy at once.

Hoping you will have a most successful tour — I envy you most terribly going to Russia!

Yours sincerely,

Benjamin Butler
