Dear Mr. Jemianka,

I have given much thought recently to the deterioration of both our personal and professional relationships and have decided not to continue as a member of the California Chamber Virtuosi. I don't want to put myself in a position to have to undergo another incident as the one that happened at the rehearsal before the Pepperdine concert last September. I would have left the group then, but I wanted to be sure I wasn't acting in haste and I wanted to give it as much thought as possible.

Unfortunately, the only conclusion I can come to is that it would be in my best interest not to continue in your ensemble.

Sincerely,

Andree Byer
