Dear Mr. Temianka, August 28

I'm terribly sorry to have to tell you that it suddenly has become impossible for me to play with you in La Jolla at the end of August. A sequence of events leading up to my departure for New York (originally scheduled for Sept. 4) have made it necessary for me to drive to New York with my parents, leaving already the 20th of August. I know this presents you with a considerable inconvenience; I apologize for this short notice. I also regret terribly not being able to participate in the festival.

Since I won't be seeing you again before I leave, I want to tell you now what devotion and respect I've developed for you through our association. I have so much to thank you for — in lessons learned, beautiful music

made and dear friends shared — that a letter can't really express the gratitude and happiness with which I think of our time together.
Please accept my sincerest thanks.
I will miss you in New York; if there is ever a chance to work together again, I will do anything
I can to make it possible.

Love,
Charles.
