Dear Mr. and Mrs. Temianka - my husband and I would like very much to thank you for your warm hospitality, encouragement, and interest you have shown Charles as a member of the YMF String Quartet. He positively loves to work with you, and considers you a newfound friend, who not only helps him to gain valuable insights into one of his most beloved areas of music — chambermusic — but also lets him share in a warm human relationship, so important to a young person in transition from child — to adult world. We were most impressed with the recent performance of the quartet, and I will definitely spend some time, soon, to listen to one of your rehearsals.

With our gratitude
