'Big Ben' Clock Tower, London

This is the name given to the bell in the Clock Tower of the Houses of Parliament on which the hours are struck. The name commemorates Sir Benjamin Hall who was Commissioner of Works when the bell was cast. The bell weighs  $13\frac{1}{2}$  tons, the four clock faces each have a diameter of  $22\frac{1}{2}$  feet, the hour hands are 9 feet and the minute hands are 14 feet long. The height of the Clock Tower is 316 feet and a light shines from above the clock when the House is in session at night. In the foreground of the picture is Parliament Square.
