Dear Henri,

It was a pleasant surprise to get your letter. I only just got it - it was forwarded from London, from place to place. Congratulations on your 85th birthday. My date 19th November coincides with my recital in Los Angeles. I see on my schedule I see that on 17th I have a recital in Baltimore. Most probably I will fly on 18th, so I will regrettably miss your birthday party, but I will be seeing you on your birthday on 23rd I will be playing in Stockton, California, therefore I will stay in Los Angeles until that day. I don't know yet at which Hotel I will be staying at.

Indeed we have known each other so long - they will be much to talk about when we meet.

I am now on a holiday at a beach resort in Thailand. Back in London 31st August.

Do drop me a line, also let me have your telephone number.

With friendship and affection,
Shura
