My dear Mrs. Coolidge,

I have just received a telegram from Mr. Darius Milhand in reply to mine, accepting to play his second violin Sonata with me at your receptions in Boston on Dec. 20 and New York Dec. 29. To complete the program he suggests that I play with him the Sândades Brasil and/or Concertino Printempo. Mr. Milhand says that a detailed letter concerning these matters is already on its way to me, and I shall write to you again when I have it.

I shall be in New York at the above address until Friday December 6, when I am flying back to SAUSALITO in California, where my address is: 34 Edwards

Would you be kind enough to let me know where and at what hour the Boston reception takes place on Dec. 20, and also the same information concerning New York.
