Dear Henri,

Thank you for your warm letter and thoughts about my concert in August. You might recall the composition I worked on was called "Orchestral Suite," a movement from a large chamber orchestra I composed. I also gave you a demo of the work. When I returned, I also gave you a demo of the work.

I hope you made it to Naples, Italy, and the feedback was great interest at the time. I expressed great interest at the time and told me there was a chance for a performance. I was sorry to hear of your reduced orchestra, which practically eliminates your doing so. Unless you have another solution, I keep it in mind. I don't see you again.

Keep it in mind. Perhaps you will have a larger orchestra? I hope you will.

I have received your letter. I hope you will. I was deeply appreciative of your movie concerning Napoleon and was deeply appreciative of keeping in touch.

Cordially,

Camilla
Dear Henri

Thank you for your warm letters; and, thoughts about my son August.

You might recall the Competition I showed you was called “Orchestral Suite” 5 movements, one was scored for large chamber orch; I believe I also gave you a demo tape I made with the R.A.L. orchestra in Naples, Italy. You expressed great interest at the time and told me there was a chance of performance. I was sorry to hear your reduced orchestra, which practicing eliminates your doing it; unless of course you see a solution?

Keep it in mind; and, if you see you will have a larger orchestra for some special concert; I hope you will program it?

Your praise concerning Napoleon was deeply appreciated

Let’s keep in touch

Cordially

Carmine
